ERA Integrated Services delivers reliable, high-quality HVAC, refrigeration, and electrical solutions across Sydney, backed by hands-on experience, professional site conduct, and workmanship you can trust from start to finish.

ERA Integrated Services Pty Ltd is a newly established trade services company based in North West Sydney, providing reliable subcontract & direct to customer support across the Sydney metropolitan area.

We specialise in HVAC & Refrigeration installations, service, maintenance and breakdowns, and electrical works in both residential and commercial, and are available to support builders, contractors, and facilities teams on a subcontract basis for both residential and commercial projects.

While newly established as a business entity, ERA Integrated Services brings practical, on-site experience across new builds, commercial fit-outs, and ongoing maintenance works, with a strong focus on reliability, quality workmanship, and professional site conduct.

We believe in quality from start to finish – including using the highest quality parts and materials to ensure all work completed is done so to the highest degree.

KEY CAPABILITIES.

- Reliable and punctual attendance
- Excellent communication
- Clean, professional workmanship
- Fully equipped with own tools and vehicle
